3,000+ Quotes of Motivation and Inspiration for Everyday Living Ph.D., Dawn D. Boyer

This book has 3,000+ Quotes for inspirational, positive, motivational, and special viewpoints about everyday living. It's hard to miss quotes in one's daily life. You receive an email from a business affiliate and under their signature is a significant philosophical snippet they feel inspired them and want to share with others. You sign onto social media and see beautiful photos with embedded quotes scrolling down your wall. Textbooks, how-to, and even fictional books have quotes at the top of chapters or sidebars inspiring the reader on to bigger and better things, or supply philosophical evidence as to why an idea is important. Viewpoints and observations about life may not have changed that much over history – and seem to sustain similar themes and opinions - about how a people or society should behave themselves over thousands of years. These quotes should keep you thinking and reflecting for a long while. Writers use quotes to get past writer's blocks, educators provide quotes as thought provokers to teach young minds to analyze the words. Business owners and entrepreneurs use quotes to motivate themselves to do more, bigger, and better. Web content providers use quotes for websites, social media, and blogging about product, services, or just to catch the reader's attention to the writer's point of view. This book provides a wealth of quotes from early philosophers and religious leaders to today's zany comics and leaders of great nations. If one read one quote a day for reflection, the number of quotes in this book should take you far past eight years of thought and human study.
