Violet has been running for five years. She was running from a dark dream that had snowballed into a nightmare. That all changed one rainy day in downtown Portland when Evan Peterson gave Violet a pair of polka dot socks. She was strung out, homeless and begging on the street. Evan was a kind man who'd suffered a loss in his family that would lead him to a loss of faith. Together, Violet and Evan, found a sense of peace in one another.

Chasing Euphoria is a novella about life, loss and love.

Even in the darkness, you'll find the light.
