I sincerely hope that you'll love reading these books as much as I loved writing them. And remember to have fun.

Watching My Wife

Martin is successful, wealthy, and has a beautiful wife. There's only one problem: he's so bored! He and his wife try new things to get him excited and interested in life again, but there's only one thing on Martin's mind that's sure to light that spark. He wants to see his wife with another man.

How can he convince Denise to indulge him in his fantasy? She's a loving and loyal wife, but she says she has a fantasy of being with a porn star. Martin all but gives up on his cuckolding fantasy until a strange old woman gives him a magic potion.

Martin doesn't really believe in that hocus pocus nonsense, but what does he have to lose? In only three days, the old woman promises, Denise would be visited by the porn star of her dreams. When the time comes, Martin can't help but be both ashamed and excited by the prospect, but neither he nor his wife expect to enjoy it as thoroughly as they do.

My Wife and the Neighbor

Sam and Terri's love life has been on the rocks for a while now. Ever since he told his wife about his secret fantasy to see her with another man, it seems that she's lost all of her respect for him. She teases him by parading around the neighborhood in skimpy clothes and refuses to let him touch her... or himself.

Sam is at his wits' end when one day he catches his wife flirting with their neighbor! Jamal is everything that Sam could hope for: tall, muscular, and -if the rumors are true- well endowed. Now his only obstacle is to get Terri to admit that she wants the neighbor as much as Sam wants him for her.

Meeting My Bull

Miranda and Jeremy have what seems to be the perfect marriage. He dotes on her constantly and she is deeply in love with him. Things change dramatically when Miranda comes home drunk one night and Jeremy catches her kissing a coworker on their front step.

What Miranda doesn't know -- and Jeremy's secret shame -- is that Jeremy actually liked it! She can't figure out why he keeps rewarding her flirtatiousness or neglect of him with gifts and favors. She sets out to make the most of it, but soon finds herself feeling guilty for manipulating and taking advantage of her devoted husband.

When she comes clean about her guilty feelings, Jeremy comes clean about his hidden desire: he wants Miranda to take on a lover. Miranda is understandably confused, but eventually comes to accept that it is the best thing for their marriage and they set out together to prepare for her big night.

Bryce shows up looking like a million bucks and immediately takes charge of the situation. Miranda can't help but bask in the glow of a dominant male and soon she's doing anything he asks of her.
