Penetrating essays and riveting conversations from the 2007 Associated Press spotlighted site:--

BlackFemaleInterracialMarriage.com as black women, white men and others discuss the factors and nuances in the current social environment in the United States that are causing the surge in black women's interracial dating and marriages with mainly white men. Interracially-married, internet personality, "Evia" Moore urges African-American women to: Make marriage to a "quality" man of whatever skin shade or background a high priority, especially if there are to be children. African-American women must take advantage of their many possibilities for love and marriage outside the scope of their usual environment. If so, they would find many interested, marriageable men from a variety of ethnic groups and races who appreciate black women.

Check out why millions of readers visit Evia's ever-popular site and read what she and a wide cross section of commenters say about the topic of black women outmarrying. Visit her site to view hundreds of photos of prominent and ordinary black female-non-black male couples. Read about how they met, their love, the challenges, the joys, and their family life together, living as millions of other ordinary families.
