Ben is a successful venture capitalist who's been dragged to a networking party at a hotel by Sara, an ex-sorority platinum blonde sales rep that he's been dating for a few months.

Ben quickly becomes disdainful of the superficial scene and excludes himself to the bar, where he can relax with a drink after a long work week.

He accidentally bumps into Cindy, a buxom young woman with a full, voluptuous figure, who works for the hotel. Cindy catches Ben off guard -- her understated full figured beauty and sincere niceness is a stark yet refreshing contrast to the typical sorority cookie cutter women Ben is used to interacting with.

After getting a drink with Cindy at the bar, Ben laments to Cindy that he doesn't want to be at this party. It's at this point she suggests to him that they go to the staff break room to get away from the crowd.

What will happen when Ben is alone with this very pretty, young, full figured woman? Will Sara get curious about where her date has wandered off to?
