Liz's prophecy: A man of darkness. A child of light. You'll be able to only save one. Right from the start, Liz knew there was something David Baines wasn't telling her. But by the time the truth came out, it was too late. She'd played right into fate's hand and allowed herself to believe that she was safe from her mother's ominous prediction. She'd convinced herself that she'd finally found happiness with a wonderful man who really mattered to her and a child who desperately needed her. But now she and David are caught up in the danger from his past. And a little girl - half a world away - is still waiting for Liz to keep her promise. Must Liz give up one to save the other?
