Hazel just wanted to be wanted.

With one bad date after another, she knew that she had to be doing something wrong. She just wanted a quiet, nice man. Something that Derek would never be. Running into Hazel, an old acquaintance, at the hottest club in town, Derek wasn't going to take no for an answer. He planned to introduce her into the life of luxury to get her to say yes to being with him. He wanted to get to know Hazel all over again, and Derek was used to getting what he wanted. College had been a long time ago, and he wanted to know her as the woman she had become. She had never had someone spark such fire in her veins, but with the way he looked at her, she never wanted him to stop. When she was around him, things moved quickly, her head spun, and she never wanted it to stop.

Being wanted was something new, and it was something Hazel found she loved.
