The road of grief no longer must be tread alone. Just ask the Angels to be fellow travelers. They are ready and waiting; you only need ask.

Blessed Are They That Mourn; Comfort in the Arms of The Angels provides a heavenly course in grief recovery with pure and simple lessons combined with inspirational scripture, exercises, thoughts and journaling. This guide to communing with God and his Angels is a must for everyone that needs help climbing out of the darkness.

Brenda Schmidt brings these lessons to light, not only to offer help and hope, but to point toward a new life and spiritual journey for the bereaved.

Synopsis:

Part I ~ Daily Comfort

A day by day guide for coping. It includes thirty one days of messages and exercises. Each message is simple and straightforward, accompanied by inspirational scripture, and a final thought. The journal pages to record experiences help promote spiritual growth and healing.

Part II ~ Inspiration Through the Ravages of Grief

In Part II the Angels guide us through the many facets of grief and include exercises for releasing guilt, anger, denial, and fear. Affirmations for acceptance encourage spiritual renewal, enlightenment and communication with lost loved ones.

Part III ~ How to Communicate with the Angels

Part III concludes the lessons with simple instructions to tune up to the Angels' frequency. We find that anyone can communicate with Angels.

Grief and Healing Resources A comprehensive list of resources and support including contact information and internet addresses.
