Sorrow Of Heart...A Fallen Angel Jean Bonner, Joe Vetromile

Few stories can possess your mind and soul with a force so compelling as this one. Jean's story is completely factual and revealing from start to finish. It promises to rivet each and every reader to a motionless point in time and space where curiosity and amazement possess and dominate the mind. It is meant to inform and educate, enlighten and inspire, as well as lift one to a level of curiosity and interest most of us rarely reach.

Follow Jean's emotional and physical betrayal from start to finish. Experience her startling and heart wrenching revelation, and journey with her through a slow and painfully deliberate rise from despair. Watch her world completely change in an instant by a shattering of trust and hope. The disbelief and physical effects of her discovery were overwhelming and traumatic, leaving her to barely survive and miraculously recover. Her night in shining armor had transformed in an instant into a tarnished and "FALLEN ANGEL". Creep along with her in her "SORROW OF HEART" though a quest for truth as she finds answers to why and how this could happen. Learn the truth with her. Find a way with her. Feel the same shock as you find out what that awful truth really is.

Be saddened and sickened with her as her book will find itself virtually glued to your hands. Travel through time with her in a charade of sorts to uncover and confront the monsters of her misery. Discover what ultimately keeps her going and meet the people and creatures along the way that fill her dismal life with glimmers of hope and faith that eventually point her to a new life. Be part of her triumph as this slowly developing drama unfolds in to a wealth of revealing and valuable information that can open so many readers' hearts and minds along the way. Share in her triumph over heartache and hopelessness as she goes full circle in a rebuilding of a trust in man and faith in God. A new life and a new hope to defeat or lessen the nightmarish affects of the past will now exist in a new form as the conclusion approaches to reveal a worthwhile and climactic ending. Be there with Jean and her friends. Restore your faith through her victory and strength. By the time this story is fully told there will be no more disappointment, pain or sorrow, just a new awareness with a truth and a hope reborn.
