The Infantry is an all-weather, all-terrain unit. Its mission is to close with the enemy by means of fire and maneuver to destroy or capture him, or to repel his assault by fire, close combat, and counterattack. Against this backdrop, the Infantry company must also be ready to adapt to various levels of conflict and peace in differing environments. This requires bold, aggressive, resourceful, and adaptive leaders who are willing to accept known risks to accomplish the mission. Infantry leaders must use their initiative and make rapid decisions to take advantage of unexpected opportunities.
