vel, they are equally passionate defenders of their clients even when their interests don't always work in tandem. Set all this against the sultry background of a Miami that is riddled with crime and corruption, drowning in drugs, illegal immigrants and shady deals, simmering with a melting-pot clash of cultures and you have a recipe for highly entertaining, hotly explosive crime and justice. In the fourth title in the Suspicion series, SUSPICION OF BETRAYAL, Gail Conner thinks she has achieved all her life goals with a successful career, a perfect home and an ideal man until an anonymous and threatening phone call, obscene letters and threats to her eleven-year-old daughter threaten the very foundations of her life and begin to reveal the secrets of her past.
