Amor se escribe sin hache (Spanish Edition) Jardiel Poncela

Enrique Jardiel Poncela (Madrid, 15 de octubre de 1901-ibídem, 18 de febrero de 1952) fue un escritor y dramaturgo español. Su obra, relacionada con el teatro del absurdo, se alejó del humor tradicional acercándose a otro más intelectual, inverosímil e ilógico, rompiendo así con el naturalismo tradicional imperante en el teatro español de la época. Esto le supuso ser atacado por una gran parte de la crítica de su tiempo, ya que su humor hería los sentimientos más sensibles y abría un abanico de posibilidades cómicas que no siempre eran bien entendidas. A esto hay que sumar sus posteriores problemas con la censura franquista. Sin embargo, el paso de los años no ha hecho sino acrecentar su figura y sus obras siguen representándose en la actualidad, habiéndose rodado además numerosas películas basadas en ellas. Murió de cáncer, arruinado y en gran medida olvidado, a los 50 años.
