Workaholic wildlife photographer + loner bear shifter + Alaskan wilderness = one warming and sensual story.

Nessa Morrison is a city girl born and bred, traveling the world as a wildlife photographer. Always looking at life through a lens, she never has time to stop and appreciate the world. And the last thing on her mind has been finding romance.

James Masters lives the quiet life on his own and that's the way that he and his bear like it. He has pushed aside any thoughts of a mate or companionship... until Nessa walks into his life.

As the storm clouds roll in, can their slowly rising passion bring their two very different worlds together? Will the love in their hearts overcome the doubts in their minds?

This is a warm, sensual standalone bear shifter romance. No cliffhangers!
