Misadventures Of A Teenage Gunrunner Joseph Johnson

A near-fatal explosion in childhood leaves Joseph “Josey” Johnson with multiple scars and a reckless attitude that shapes his entire life.

An adrenaline junkie by six, young Josey is getting drunk regularly by eight. As a teen, he tags along with his older brother’s cowboy buddies, getting into fights, partying, and trying to get laid as often as possible. He’s happy enough, but the idea of a lifetime as a New Mexico cowboy really doesn’t appeal.

Then his girlfriend’s father makes Josey an unexpected offer: help him run a shipment of guns into Central America. It’s a promise of adventure Josey can’t resist, but he quickly discovers the thrills and money don’t outweigh the risk of dangerous enemies—and even more dangerous friends.

As Josey finds himself drawn ever deeper into gunrunning’s sinister world, he finds himself forced to make a choice: become a full-fledged outlaw or get out while he still can.

Misadventures of a Teenage Gunrunner recounts Joseph Johnson’s remarkable true adventures in Central America as a young man struggling to discover who he is and the man he wants to become.
