What saves you from sure death - EVIL or DIVINE?

Eric had never done any good to anyone in his life. But, when he is about to die of tuberculosis, something saves him - A Dream. He believes something EVIL has saved him, and he knew he had to re-pay whosoever had saved him because that's what he would have done.

To find the truth, he goes back to Glenville to meet Father Frederick, who could guide him. Instead, he finds two explorers who are after a treasure.

While chasing them, he comes to know about the mysteries of the place where he had spent his childhood and also about the people he had met recently.

He follows them and soon he finds himself in unknown territory. However, he encounters something that tells him the truth about his losing their track and how he is linked with the two explorers.

Will he find the reason behind his getting cured? Who has saved him and what does it want from him?
